5.2	The early and local resolution of issues between landlords and residents is key to effective complaint handling. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'informal complaint') as this causes unnecessary confusion.	Yes	Evidenced: Policy = Sec 9 Procedure = Sec 9	We do not have a stage zero within our formal complaints process. We include target dates within all of our acknowledgement letters stating that we will look to respond before the target date where possible.
5.3	A process with more than two stages is not acceptable under any circumstances as this will make the complaint process unduly long and delay access to the Ombudsman.	Yes	Evidenced: Policy = Sec 9 Procedure = Sec 9 Service Standard -	Eden Housing Association does not have a third stage in the Formal Complaints process.
5.4	Where a landlord's complaint response is handled by a third party (e.g. a contractor or independent adjudicator) at any stage, it must	Yes	Evidenced: Policy = Sec 9 Procedure = Sec 9	All complaints involving a third party are 'owned' by Eden Housing Association and dealt with in line with the policy and procedure.

In cases where a third party is involved our Complaints & Resolutions Officer will lead, liaise and agree outcomes which will form part of the final response.
5.5	Landlords are responsible for ensuring that any third parties handle complaints in line with the Code.	Yes	Evidenced: Policy = 9 Procedure = 9	As above 5.4 – We will always lead the complaint however where a third party is involved in a complaint the Complaints & Resolutions Officer will ensure that they are fully aware of our obligations in line with the Code and our approach to complaint handling.
5.6	When a complaint is logged at Stage 1 or escalated to Stage 2, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. The Code will refer to this as “the complaint definition”. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification.	Yes	Evidenced: Policy = Sec 9 Procedure = 9 Appendices 3-6	Our template letters for Stage 1 and Stage 2 will always include the ‘complaint definition’ within the mandatory sections of the letter. Where further information is required this will form part of the initial contact with the complainant.

5.9	Where a response to a complaint will fall outside the timescales set out in this Code, the landlord must agree with the resident suitable intervals for keeping them informed about their complaint.	Yes	Evidenced: Procedure = Sec 9 Appendix 7	We aim to deal with all of our complaints within the set timescales unless there are delays as requested by the resident, in addition the investigating officer may require additional time to gather relevant information. In these instances, we will provide an explanation for the delay and agree a revised date for the response.

5.10	Landlords must make reasonable adjustments for residents where appropriate under the Equality Act 2010. Landlords must keep a record of any reasonable adjustments agreed, as well as a record of any disabilities a resident has disclosed. Any agreed reasonable adjustments must be kept under active review.	Yes	Evidenced: Policy = Sec 7 Procedure = Sec 3 Service Standard Feedback Module of our Housing Management System	Our Policy and Procedure sets out how we will respond to reasonable adjustments requests in line with the Equality Act 2010, in addition staff are provided with regular training/updates to ensure that these requests can be met and dealt with appropriately. A record of any reasonable adjustments/disabilities are stored and reviewed using our Housing Management system Orchard.

Yes	Evidenced: Policy = Sec 9 Procedure = Sec 6,9	We would not refuse to escalate a complaint to the next stage of our process unless there is a valid reason to do so (in line with section 2 of the code).

	other parties, and any relevant supporting documentation such as reports or surveys.		Survey data is collected via Survey Monkey then stored internally.
5.13	Landlords must have processes in place to ensure a complaint can be remedied at any stage of its complaints process. Landlords must ensure appropriate remedies can be provided at any stage of the complaints process without the need for escalation.	Yes	Evidenced: Policy = Sec 9, 11 Procedure = Sec 9	We have a dedicated Complaints & Resolutions Officer, Service Managers and an Executive Team who are all responsible for providing appropriate remedies to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the complainant. These can be provided at any stage of the complaints process.
5.14	Landlords must have policies and procedures in place for managing unacceptable behaviour from residents and/or their representatives. Landlords must be able to evidence reasons for putting any restrictions in place and must keep restrictions under regular review	Yes	Evidenced: EHA's Unacceptable Action's Policy Policy = Sec 10	When implementing restrictions due to unacceptable behaviour we adhere to guidance as set out in our Unacceptable Action's Policy which demonstrates regard for the provisions of the Equality Act 2010.
